NASHVILLE, TENN., June 12, 1885. DR. C. J. MOFFETT, St. Louis, Mo.—I can truly say that your Teething is the greatest blessing to teething children that the world has ever known. I have used it two years, and do not like to be without a box all the time. My baby would hardly have lived through his second summer if I had not used your powders. He is now strong and well, and has all his teeth. I never allow an opportunity to pass without recommending Teething to mothers. May God reward you for the good you have done teething babies through this remedy.

Respectfully, MRS. A. G. RUSSELL.

Through to Harrison.

On April 15th, the St. Louis and North Arkansas Railroad was formally opened to Harrison, Arkansas, establishing (in connection with the Frisco line from Seligman) direct railway communication with some of the richest lead and zinc fields yet discovered.

The territory traversed by the new line presents perhaps the most remarkable panorama of rugged mountain ranges and fertile valleys to be found on the American continent. A trip to Harrison is well worth the time so spent either from a commercial or a sight seeing standpoint.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

In the Circuit Court of Lafayette County, Missouri, December Term, 1901.
Robert Semler, Plaintiff, vs.
Lester B. Semler, Defendant.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein, by his attorney, and files his petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that defendant, Lester B. Semler, is not a resident of the state of Missouri: Whereupon it is ordered by the clerk in vacation that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against her in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of adultery and other indignities as to render his condition intolerable, and that unless the said non-resident defendant, Lester B. Semler, be and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be given and holden at the court house, in the city of Lexington, in said county, on the 2nd day of December next, and on or before the first day of said term, if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then on or before the last day of said term, answer or plead to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said county of Lafayette for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least thirty days before the first day of said next December term of this court.

A true copy. Attest—
J. H. CAMPBELL, Circuit Clerk.
By J. W. SYDNOR, Deputy.
Charles Vivion, Attorney for Plaintiff. 9-715
